Dear Mr. Aydin,

Congratulations, you passed the 2009 FRM® Exam Full!

You have now joined a unique but select group of 24,139 financial risk professionals from around the world. On behalf of the Global Association of Risk Professional employees and Board of Trustees, congratulations on passing the 2009 FRM Examination and demonstrating your commitment to excellence in Financial Risk Management. Your performance on the Financial Risk Manager examination validates that you possess the professional skills, intuitive and analytical capabilities necessary to effectively perform the responsibilities of a financial risk manager.

The final step for FRM Certification is to provide evidence that you have met the two years of professional work experience requirement. To do this, submit your CV/resume via our Resume Builder web portal. Once that has been completed we will verify your work experience. Should we have any questions or require further information regarding your work experience, we will contact you.

Important to note: you have 5 years from the date that you passed the FRM Exam to submit your CV/Resume. If you do not meet the two year work requirement during this period, you will have to retake the FRM Exam. Therefore, we encourage you to submit your information as soon as you complete two years of professional work experience.

If you have posted your CV/Resume no later than March 31, 2010 and met the professional work experience requirement, you will be mailed your FRM Certificate on April 15, 2010. If you have not posted your CV/Resume by March 31, 2010 or have not yet met the professional work experience requirement, please note that FRM Certificates are distributed quarterly to all newly qualified candidates. We encourage you to visit our website to see the certificate distribution schedule. Once you have met all of our requirements for certification as a Financial Risk Manager, you are encouraged to use the FRM designation on all of your correspondences.

Thank you for taking the 2009 FRM Exam and patiently waiting for your results. As a part of our continuing effort to provide feedback to all FRM Candidates, shortly you will receive another email with instructions on how to access information about your performance relative to all other 2009 FRM Candidates who sat for the examination.
